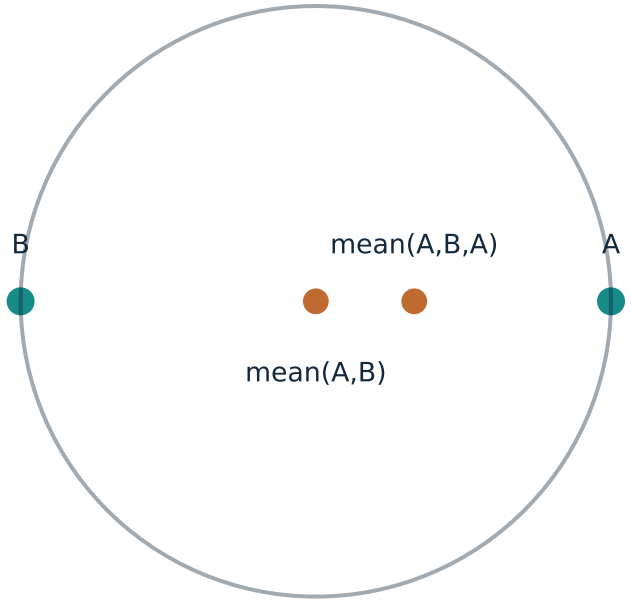
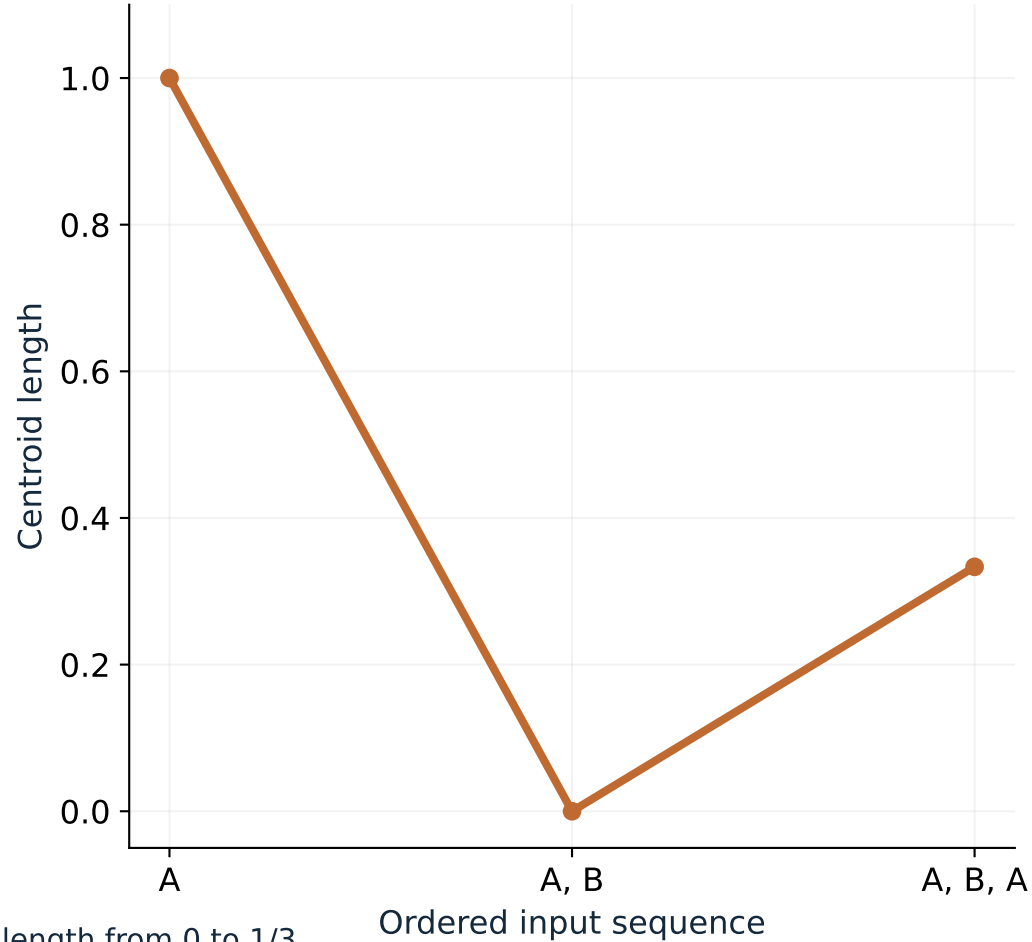
Inside the wall does not mean always moving inward





Analytic 2D section of a 4D ball. Appending A raises the length from 0 to 1/3.
Convexity still holds: the parent length is bounded by the average length of its immediate children.